Functioning of the committees:

- the committees operate in a uniform order:

- only the elected members can participate and vote

- the chairman of the commission has the right to invite observers or advisers , but they don't have right to vote.
- The participation of elected members in the meetings is expected
- According to the decision of the CD, members who do not participate in the work of the committee at a minimum rate of 50% may not be nominated as members or chairmen of the committee for the following period.

I ask the Chairmen of the Committees to start the work by organizing online meetings by 15 April 2021 in view of the pandemic situation and to make their work plan for the period up to 2023.

The Chairmen will present the work plan to the FCI Board at the CD meeting on 6th May 2021.

The World Best Pigeon 2020 competition also shows that despite the epidemic, competitions were held in many countries in 2020.

The FCI presidency, in cooperation with the Romanian Federation, will do its best to organize the Olympics in January 2022 in Romania.

It is very important that we need to be prepared, professional and we must professionally develop the pigeon sport both on a national and international level.

Warm welcome ALL Elected Committee Members to the FCI professional governing bodies!

I wish all the committees a successful , good job!
